

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. This law has improved my ability to relax in the privacy of my own home without harrassing phone calls. Any company I am not a current customer of can reach me by U.S. mail at any time. As a working mother of a 5-year old, I value our family time in the evening much more than some corporation's bottom line.